

CITRA – Toledo 2011

Workshop “Meeting the digital challenge together – Archival cooperation within ICARUS”

25th October 2011, 10:00 – 17:00

Part I

Meeting digital challenges together: The ICARUS-Idea (www.icar-us.eu)

Basics

- 10:00-10:20 Welcome and introduction (Thomas Aigner, president of ICARUS)
- 10:20-10:40 Living international cooperation – Best Practice by ICARUS (Karl Heinz, secretary of ICARUS)
- 10:40-11:30 Members Area: Members introduce themselves and their professional approach to international cooperation inside ICARUS
- 11:30-11:50 Discussion / Coffee Break

Networks inside the Network

- 11:50-12:10 The European Network on Archival Cooperation – Goals and activities (Caroline Maximoff, ICARUS)
- 12:10-12:25 ICARUSnet – A simple way for archives to join the digital age (Vlatka Lemić, Croatian State Archives)
- 12:25-12:40 Cadastral Maps online – Meeting a very special challenge together (András Sipos, Budapest City Archives)
- 12:40-12:55 Matricula – Church registers online across borders and institutions (Herbert Wurster, Diocesan Archive of Passau)

Part II

Archival content as a treasure for everyone: The Monasterium Collaborative Archive (www.monasterium.net)

- 14:00-14:15 Welcome and Introduction (Thomas Aigner, president of ICARUS)
- 14:15-14:40 The Monasterium Collaborative Archive: Functionalities, ongoing development and perspectives (Karl Heinz, secretary of ICARUS)
- 14:40-15:05 Digital Diplomats – New perspectives for an old science (Antonella Ambrosio, University Federico II. in Naples)
- 15:05-16:00 Discussion / Coffee Break
- 16:00-17:00 The Monasterium Collaborative Archive in use – Practical exercises (Antonella Ambrosio/Luca Aiello, University Federico II., Naples /Daniel Jeller, head of digitization ICARUS)