Digitisation and the Internet ...

... have changed the possibilities to access and research historical documents profoundly.

This process poses tremendous challenges to everyone involved – safe-keeping institutions, researchers as well as the interested public.

The ICARUS consortium, consisting of more than 160 archives and scientific institutions from 30 European countries plus Canada and the USA, rises to these determining factors.

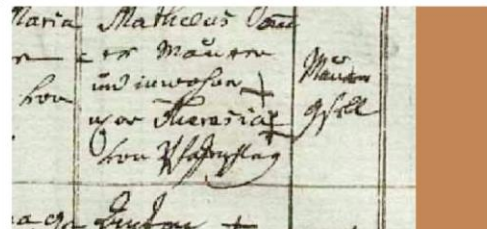

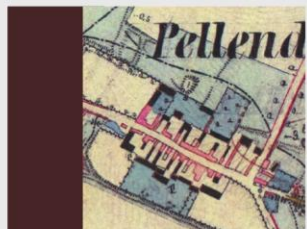

ICARUS ...

- ... provides free access to important sources of European history within the frame of their internet offerings: Monasterium.Net, Matricula, Topotheque, Austrian Archives Portal, Crossborder Archives
- ... ensures sustainable development of archival and historical research possibilities in the internet through intensive cooperation between its members in various projects
- ... is a network of more than 140 European and Canadian archives and academical institutions

ICARUS 4 all ...

- ... are the people behind the network whose aims and activities of ICARUS are important to
- ... is open for everyone who wants to contribute to sustainably and independently secure the services of ICARUS' digital archives
- ... associates experts, researchers and interested people of all shades (archives, universities, family research, home down research etc.)
- ... contributes to continuously further and actively develop new projects within ICARUS
- ... this way secures free, barrier-free digital access to the most important and a vast amount of sources of the European history

Full members ...

- ... will become the backbone to a sustainable hedging of ICARUS, the availabilities of its digital internet offerings and the continuous development of new projects
- ... will look exclusively behind the scenes of European archives and research institutions at various events (excursions, presentations, round tables)
- ... will stay up to date with the latest development and projects within ICARUS as well as with the archival world on national and international level via a regular newsletter
- ... have the opportunity to actively co-shape by introducing their propositions, suggestions and perspectives

Supporting Members ...

- ... contribute to the solid financial basis of ICARUS by rendering higher membership fees
- ... will be registered on the board of supporting members on the associations web site
- ... will obtain their own association badge

Membership fees:

Full members:	€ 35.- / year
Reduced:	€ 10.- / year
Supporting members:	min. € 300.- / year

ICARUS 4 all

Historic documents for all! ICARUS for all!

Now, the ICARUS 4 all friends' association expands the network of institutions for all those people who ...

- feel connected with its aims and activities,
- wish to actively participate in furthering and developing the network,
- wish to participate in discussions about the future of archives and their respective exploration in the Digital Age.
