3. GENERAL NEWS

Archive Portal “porta fontium”

A new archive portal Porta fontium – the common project of the State District Archive in Pilsen and the General Directory of the Bavarian State Archives in Munich – was introduced on 8th April 2011 in Waldsassen, Germany. Its function is to digitize the archive documents and units which were separated after the Second World War and to connect them in one digitized virtual complex. There are presented registers, chronicles, charters and photos from the Czech and Bavarian state archives.

4. ICARUS – NEWS

- ICARUS Lectures

ICARUS initiated a series of lectures dealing with different and up-to-date issues of the archival sciences and other topics concerning archival institutions in general.

The first of these ICARUS-Lectures was held by Karel Halla from the Regional State Archives of Cheb (Státní okresní archiv Cheb, CZ) in Munich (DE) talking about the situation of Czech archives online and the common historic sources of the border region of Bavaria and the Czech Republic.

- ICARUS Podcasts

All ICARUS-Lectures and many lectures of ICARUS members and associates are going to be recorded and made available for subscription as podcasts, online playback as webstreams and individual mp3-download on the website www.icar-us.eu.

4. PROJECTS:

- EU-project “Central European virtual archives network of medieval charters” (short: Charters Network)

Charters Network was a project supported by the European Commission as part of the Culture Programme 2007-2013 with the duration of 2 years commencing in October 2008 has been concluded in autumn 2010. Coordinated by the St. Poelten Episcopal Archives (AT) 8 partners from 6 different EU-countries (AT, CZ, DE, HU, SI, SK) collaborated in building up a tighter network of archival institutions within Central Europe.

The main goals of the project were

- Enhancement of communication and cooperation between archives (via national and international workshops, expert-exchange programme) in central Europe
- Support of digitizing projects in order to integrate digitized data from the archives into an open source internet portal (www.monasterium.net)

- EU-project “ENArC – European Network on Archival Cooperation”

Following in the footsteps of the above mentioned project, another cooperation project of archives within the framework of the EU Culture Programme 2007 – 2013 was successfully submitted in 2010. The project consortium consists of 14 partners from 10 different European countries (AT, CZ, DE, ES, HR, HU, IT, RS, SI, SK) working towards a common goal for the duration of 4.5 years.

The main aims of the project “ENArC - European Network on Archival Cooperation” are:

- Establishing and expanding the already existing network of ICARUS and strengthening the international cooperation
- Continuous exchange of know-how and experience - between individuals and institutions involved
- Digitisation and indexing activities of the participating partners
- Publishing project results both within the network and to the general public
