

DRŽAVNI
ARHIV
U PAZINU

Call for papers

Present Status and Perspectives of the Archival Glagolitic Heritage

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The State Archives in Pazin, in co-organisation with the Croatian State Archives, ICARUS (International Centre for Archival Research) and the State Archives in Rijeka, is organising an international archivist conference under the working title "Present Status and Perspectives of the Archival Glagolitic Heritage"

The Conference will take place in the first half of June 2015 at the State Archives in Pazin.

The Conference has been divided into two topic areas:

- The Glagolitic Alphabet in the international context (Slovenia, Italy, France, the Czech Republic etc.),
- The Glagolitic Alphabet in the national context.

Subgroups comprised of the above-listed two units:

- The present status of archival Glagolitic heritage (level of preservation and scope of records),
- Research practice related to archival Glagolitic heritage (publishing, transliteration etc.).

The objective of the conference is to present the current status of archival Glagolitic heritage both in Croatia and abroad, as well as to shape the guidelines for its further systematic conservation. Moreover, the intention is to have the full extent of the archival Glagolitic records published on web sites to facilitate wider access.

Conference language: Croatian, English, Italian.

Please send your papers, including an abstract of not more than 1,000 characters without spaces and key words (4 to 6) in Croatian, Italian or English by and not later than 1 March 2015 to skup@dapa.hr. Only online applications will be possible.

Kind regards,

the Conference Committee