

Institute of Archival Science and Auxiliary Sciences of History at the Faculty of Arts,
University of South Bohemia in České Budějovice and the National Archives in Prague in cooperation with International Centre for Archival Research (ICARUS) and the EU project Community as Opportunity (CO:OP)

would like to invite you to a workshop:

Archives and Universities in Digital World. Contemporary trends in making archival materials available

Date: 20th April 2018

Place: Faculty of Arts, University of South Bohemia in České Budějovice
Branišovská 31a, České Budějovice, room Z1 (2nd floor)

Programme

10:30 – 10:35 Welcome words

10:35 – 10:50 International cooperation of the National Archives in the field of processing of archival documents and making them available - EU projects (Mgr. Jitka Křečková)

10:50 - 11:05 The Monasterium Project – editing with MOM-CA (Mgr. Lucie Neužilová)

11:05 – 11:15 The Topotheque Project (Mgr. Kateřina Zenklová)

11:15 – 11:30 Working with Digitised Archival Documents in University Courses: The Edition of Parish Priests' Reports of the Prague Archdiocese from 1677 (Doc. PhDr. Marie Ryantová, CSc.)

11:30 – 11:45 Discussion

11:45 – 12:15 Break

12:15 – 12:30 The National Archives – Digitisation and Digital Archiving (Bc. Jiří Bernas)

12:30 – 12:45 The Digitising Project in Prague City Archives (Mgr. Stanislav Bečvář)

12:45 – 13:00 State Regional Archives in Třeboň and Cooperation with the Monasterium Project – ICARUS (PaedDr. Laděna Plucarová)

13:00 – 13:30 Final discussion:

What do students expect from the Archives?

Are students satisfied with current level of availability of archival documents?

What should study of archival documents look like in the future?

